

The Good Shepherd

I am your shepherd you are my sheep, when life gets hard, when life gets steep, through the dark times, through the deep
I will walk beside you.

I am your shepherd, I know your names,
When things seem different, things seem strange
When it seems like nothing will be the same,
I will walk beside you.

I am your shepherd, I know you so well,
The things you touch and see and smell
I know the story that you tell as I walk beside you.

I am your shepherd; I know each one,
So do not fear what is to come
The night-time brings the morning sun
The journey ends as it's begun and I am there beside you.
